THE 85 00 EXCURSION

To New Orleans March 17th,

Buy your tickets from D. E. Ellis, 31 Madison street, as he is the only agent in Memphis author zed to sell tickets for Collins's Grand Pullman Palace Car Excursion on the 17th of March, and everybody knows what the Collins excursions are. They need no recommendation. The name and management are sufficient guarantee that the excursion will be all that could be desired.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Shane-Xa-Lawn."

Mr. W. J. Scanlan made his appearance before a Memphis audience last right in an Irish play called Shane-Na-Lawn, and it is no exaggeration to say that he captured his audience from the first five minutes he occupied the stage and held their favor with increasing measure until the curtain fell upon the last act. Of the merits of the play it is simply necessary to say that it is better than the usual run of Irish plays, and that its dialogue is fresh and free from the suspicion common to plays of this character—that its wit has been dug up out of worn-out almanacs. But Mr. Scanlan is a good enough actor to carry even a bad play to success, and as Shane-Na-Laws is not a bad play, it goes without saying that Mr. Scanlan's success last night was genuine, un-equa'ed and well deserved. He is an actor of rare merit in his line, easy, natural, graceful, and with a voice so melodiously attuned that he can make an old tune sound new. Among other thiogs he sang last night was that threadbare nursery song "Peek-a-Boo," yet so exquisitely was it done that he received and deserved a hearty encore. Admirers of the Irish character in its most lovable phase should not neglect the opportunity to see Mr. Scanlan. He is supported by Miss Marion Wren as "Peggy O'Moore" and Gus Reynolds as "Ron Peggy ald" are conspicuously clever. Miss Lillian Hadley also does very neat work in the character of "Rose Red-Shane-na Lawn will be repeated to-night.

Mile. Rhea will begin a week's engagement at the Memphis Theater next Monday, and the sale of seats begins to day. This charming actress has greatly improved since her last visit here. The Cleveland Herald says of her: "Seldom has the elegant English avenue operations." Euclid avenue opera-house contained as large or as brilliant an audience as last evening. The best society of Cleveland, wealth, fashion and intelligence all considered, was so literally represented as to tax to the utmost the capacity of the spacious theater. We may also add that the opera house never con-tained a more thoroughly charmed andience. Mile. Rhea appeared in her favorite character, "Adrienne." In personal beauty, in superb costuming, in dramatic fire she even surpassed the ideal personation of the character. Her triumsh in Cleveland is complete. She came a stranger, almost unheralded save by her misfortunes of management in the East. She was received coldly and critically. She will leave a prime favorits. She came, she was seen, she conquered. It is not within our recollection that another actress ever in so short a time won such enthusiastic admiration in over-particular and exacting Cleve-

Crosby's Dime Museum.

The attractions presented at this house for the present week are very varied and attractive withal. The three-legged man, Lippert, is one of the most remarkable freaks of nature ever exhibited, and as such is visited by numbers of medical men in every city where he holds receptions. Major and Mrs. Littlefinger, the smallest married couple in the world, seem to be a very happy duo. Her wardrobe is very extensive and handsome. far she has appeared at each reception in a different costume. The olio performance in the theatorium is a very fine one, and Mr. Crosby is con-stantly in receipt of communi-cations from all parts of cations from all parts of the country. Yesterday a gentle-man from Brownsville, Tenn., wrote to him with regard to a very strange human freak who wished an engagement. From now to the end of the however, the places are all booked, so the Brownsville man had to be declined with thanks.

Mr. Vernou, the general contracting agent of old John Robinson's circus, who has been in New Orleans for the ageant, visited the museum and his ife-long friend, Mr. W. E. Croeby.

Look Out When the Bell Rings,

See the Rich Prizes the Misfit Clothing Parlors Are Offering.

Seasons come and seasons go, and the time for thin and new clothing is at hand. Although the Misfit Clothing Parlors have not talked much through the newspapers during the past month, we have been remarkably busy. We have enlarged and improved our accommodations for displaying goods. We have established purchasing agencies in new cities, and sought by every means possible to offer our customers better bargains than we ever offered before. We have succeeded because the way to win success is to work for it. We are receiving new goods almost daily, and already have on hand a magnificent assortment of goods. We can show all the latest styles and newest fabries. For the large patronage bestowed upon us we feel very thankful. The best way to win patronage is to deserve it. It is our great facilities for getting fine tailor-made clothing so low that enables us to offer it at such very cheap rates. Cheap buying is the secret of low prices, and although our goods are the finest in the world, they actually cost us less than we would have to pay for inferior ready-made clothing, Please give us a call. We are proud of our spring stock and want you to inspect it whether you want to buy or not. Remember, all alterations to improve a fit done free of charge by first-class tailors in our Parlors.
